

Harvard Bioscience Announces Third Quarter 2021 Financial Results

November 3, 2021

Strong double digit revenue growth, solid margin performance despite global supply chain disruptions

- Revenue up 23% year-over-year as sales momentum continues
- Pre-clinical product revenue up 28%
- Cellular and Molecular Technologies (CMT) product revenue up 19%

HOLLISTON, Mass., Nov. 03, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Harvard Bioscience, Inc. (Nasdaq: HBIO) (the "Company") today announced financial results for the period ended September 30, 2021.

Jim Green, Chairman and CEO said, "The positive trends we reported in the first half of 2021 have carried through with our strong top line performance in Q3. Demand for our pre-clinical products was very strong, with revenue up 28% over prior year, and also up significantly over pre-Covid levels. Our CMT products also experienced meaningful growth, up 19% over prior year as academic lab sales continue to recover. Operating income was adversely impacted by increased material, freight and labor costs associated with ongoing global supply disruptions."

Mr. Green concluded, "We expect revenue growth of 15% to 17% for 2021 compared to 2020 based on sales momentum, up from prior expectations of 12% to 15%. Although supply disruptions are forcing extra costs in the short term, we still expect adjusted operating margin expansion to the mid-teens for the year."

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Information

In this press release, we have included non-GAAP financial information including adjusted operating income, adjusted net income, adjusted diluted earnings per share, and adjusted EBITDA. We believe that this non-GAAP financial information provides investors with an enhanced understanding of the underlying operations of the business. For the periods presented, these non-GAAP financial measures have excluded certain expenses and income primarily resulting from purchase accounting or events that we do not believe are related to the underlying operations of the business such as amortization of intangibles related to acquisitions, costs related to acquisition, disposition and integration initiatives, impairment charges, severance, restructuring and other business transformation expenses, and stock-based compensation expense. They also exclude the tax impact of the reconciling items. This non-GAAP financial information approximates information used by our management to internally evaluate the operating results of the Company. Tabular reconciliations of our adjusted operating income, adjusted net income (loss), adjusted earnings (loss) per diluted share, and adjusted EBITDA are included as exhibits below in this press release.

The non-GAAP financial information provided in this press release should be considered in addition to, not as a substitute for, the financial information provided and presented in accordance with GAAP and may be different than other companies' non-GAAP financial information.
